Client Case Study

Inconnection delivered a virtual football speaker event for our IT client. The motivational speaker session and Q&A was delivered by Wycombe Wanderers Football Manager, Gareth Ainsworth, from a studio near to the stadium. Inconnection managed the event overseeing artist liaison, studio management, live streaming and a pre-event send.

"I just wanted to drop you a note to let you know what a great job your team did for my event today. The team were first class from the minute we engaged with them right the way to closing off the event this evening and our partners feedback is fantastic."
