

Yorkshire 3 Peaks

By Inconnection Adventures

Event Overview

This one-day hike will have you best the Pennine peaks of Pen-y-ghent, Whernside, and Ingleborough. The three peaks will take you over a 39.2km route and with a total ascent of 1585m across the course.

This is the perfect challenge for those new to adventure but ready to achieve. This isn't a short walk though, with the average time being nine to fourteen hours but finishing in twelve to succeed at the Yorkshire Three Peak challenge. There is also the chance to stop for a meal and a drink at one of the homely restaurants by the finish point.

Event Scale

This event is highly scalable and can be catered from just a small group to having hundreds follow the trail over the course of the day. So, whether it is a select team you want to challenge or create a company wide incentive this activity is perfect

MemMail

Our MemMail service is an optional extra to build anticipation and excitement for your expedition. There are many options to include from branded water bottles to pieces of kit, but there is no limit to what could be included within the personalised MemMail package. They will be branded to your company colours and sealed with a branded logo sticker. After you've completed the Yorkshire Three Peaks, you can have a follow-up MemMail package sent to your guests with a picture of your team at the finish, either framed, on a keychain, or any other possibilities.

Our Experts

Our expert, Jason Rawles, has been leading groups up and down mountains for years. Jason has an extensive network to ensure your guests will be in the best hands.

So, you can relax knowing the event will be run by qualified guides and instructors, plus all the insurances and liabilities will be in place for your expedition.
