Event Overview

Perfect to enjoy with clients or colleagues, our cider tasting event is brought to you by Broadway Press Cider, giving your guests an insight into their use of rescued, misshapen apples that would have otherwise been discarded.

Whether your guests are local or spread across the UK, this event can be catered to any logistic needs. Your guests will receive six hand selected ciders from Broadway Press Cider, and the expert insight of one of the presses very own employees. We will handle the rest to give your guests a fantastic tasting experience.

Our MemMail service can be used to further build, anticipate, and boost attendance of your event. Your guests will receive their pack before the event with all the components they will need for a unique tasting experience. You have the chance to customise the MemMail with all your branding, colours, or other optional extras, finished with a handwritten note, adding that personal feel.

What's Included:

- Six expertly selected bottles of cider
- A branded instructions on storing and serve the cider
- A handwritten note with your personalised message
- Any optional extras

Make it your own with the box, tissue, and shred in your colour of choice, branded glassware, finished off with a personalised, handwritten note and your logo sticker.

How Does it Work?

Your guests will be guided through their tasting experience by Broadway Press' expert, who will take them through tasting each cider and the fascinating production techniques of Broadway Press. Your guests will leave with a renewed appreciation of craft ciders.
