Event Overview

Ideal for clients or colleagues, our gin tasting session gives your guests the chance to learn the intricacies of different gins, tonics, and botanicals. Led by our gin expert your guests will get an insight into the exquisite flavours of different gins.

This event can be enjoyed live, hybrid, or virtually to suit any business needs. Your guests will enjoy a hand selected mix of four gins ready to taste along with our expert. They will also learn about how gin is distilled, and different serving options and garnishes to try creating for themselves after the event.

MemMail

Our MemMail service can be used to further build, anticipate, and boost attendance of your event. Your guests will receive their pack before the event with all the components they will need for an exquisite tasting experience. You have the chance to customise the MemMail with all your branding, colours, or other optional extras, finished with a handwritten note, adding that personal feel.

What's Included:

- 4 specially selected gins and 2 complementary tonics
- A variety of garnishes
- A set of event instructions
- A handwritten note with your personalised message
- Any optional extras

Make it your own with the box, tissue, and shred in your colour of choice, branded glassware, finished off with a personalised, handwritten note and your logo sticker.

How Does it Work?

Your guests will be guided through their tasting experience by our gin expert, who will lead them through tasting each unique gin and the different serving options and garnishes to choose from. After the session will be filled with an in-depth knowledge of gin and its production.
