MemMail

Our MemMail service can be used to further build, anticipate, and boost attendance of your event. Your guests will receive their pack before the event with all the components they will need for a sizzling BBQ cook-along. You have the chance to customise the MemMail with all your branding, colours, or other optional extras, finished with a handwritten note, adding that personal feel.

What's Included:

- Cooking ingredients
- Branded shopping list and gift card for fresh items
- Branded event instructions
- Personalised, handwritten note
- Optional extras like a drinks package

Make it your own with the box, tissue, and shred in your colour of choice, branded glassware, finished off with a personalised, handwritten note and your logo sticker.

How Does it Work?

Your guests will be guided through their BBQ cook-along by a professional chef, either on a BBQ or from their kitchen. They will get to learn some of the tricks to take their BBQ skill to the next level.
